

When is a "Writing" a "Public Record" under the Public Records Act?

A Guide for Illustrative Purposes Only. Not Legal Advice/Opinion. Consult RCW 42.56 (PRA) and PRA Case Law for Further Analysis. Some Citations on Reverse.

1. Does the writing contain information relating to the conduct of government or the performance of any governmental or proprietary function of a state or local agency?

If NO, STOP. Not a public record.

If YES, proceed to Question # 2

2. Is the writing a certain record held by a qualified volunteer?
(See volunteer exception criteria on reverse.)

If YES, STOP. Not a public record.

If NO, proceed to Question # 3

3. Was the writing prepared, owned, used or retained by the state or local agency?

If YES, is a public record.

If uncertain (about record's preparation, use, ownership or retention), or to determine if the answer is "no," ask (a), (b) & (c).
The (a) – (c) analysis may be fact-specific. Additional analysis might be appropriate in a particular situation.

(a) Is the writing located in/on the state or local AGENCY'S files, servers, accounts, devices?

If YES, is a public record.

If NO, consider other places where records are reasonably likely to be located. Go to (b) & (c).

(b) Is the writing located in/on AGENCY EMPLOYEES' OR OFFICIALS' PERSONAL (non-agency) files, servers, accounts, devices?

If YES, did the employee or official prepare the writing in his/her public employment or official capacity? (Was the writing "related to" the employee's/official's public responsibilities?) Ask ALL THREE questions below - (i) through (iii). (Fact-specific)

(i) Did the job require the writing?
OR

(ii) Did the employer direct the writing?
OR

(iii) Did the writing further the employer's interests?
(Must be more than a mere reference, mention or comment about the employee's or official's public duties.)

If (i), (ii) OR (iii) are YES, is a public record.

If ALL are NO, STOP. Not a public record.

If NO, consider other reasonable locations. Go to (c).

(c) Is the writing located in/on THIRD PARTY'S files, servers, accounts, devices? (Third party = non-agency entities performing functions for the agency --- ex.: contractors/consultants)

If YES, (i) Did the agency prepare, own, or use the writing? Or
(ii) Does only the third party retain the writing but the writing involves the contract work &/or has a nexus to agency's decision process? (Fact-specific – more analysis may be needed)

If any YES, is a public record.

If YES, is the third party the "functional equivalent" of a public agency/public employee?
(Fact-specific – see "Telford Test")

If NO, STOP. Not a public record.

If NO, STOP. Not a public record.

Citations & Resources

The flow chart on the reverse is an illustrative guide only. It is designed to assist in using the analytical steps to determine a “public record.” Determining the status of a particular record may depend upon a review of more facts or require further legal analysis. For more analysis or research, see the resources listed below. This is not an exhaustive list. An agency should consult with its legal counsel if it needs legal research or legal advice. In addition, changes in statutes, and new court decisions, may affect the analytical steps in this guide. See the circled date below and on the reverse for the last revision to this guide.
